

STOP

Feeling Bad About Yourself.

You Deserve To Be Happy.

Hiding your smile? Fear being humiliated every time you eat with friends or others? Sad, dealing with your yucky dentures every morning and night? Putting up with this just because you feel guilty about spending money on yourself? STOP IT.

Do you have chipped, broken or missing teeth? Do you use gloppy dental adhesive and suffer poor fitting dentures?

NOW you can have a natural looking smile...and safely chew all your favorite foods comfortably!

A MESSAGE FROM DR. LEN ANGLIS

Hey, this is YOUR time, and bluntly, you (and we) can see the last hole and clubhouse from here—but, good news, we're living longer than ever, so there are a lot of days left.

Do you really want to be bedeviled, frustrated, embarrassed on every one of those days with teeth that don't work?...poor fitting dentures that won't let you eat foods you miss enjoying?...hiding your chipped, broken or missing teeth? What horrible sins did you commit to deserve this?!!!

I'll bet you've worked hard, played by the rules, made sacrifices for your family, made a point of being a good neighbor. You probably stand for our anthem, kneel to pray, and thank veterans for their service. ME TOO.

I love seeing people like you have the LIFE-CHANGING EXPERIENCE of getting new, real, permanent teeth that work perfectly and look great with every smile. It takes 10 years off your face, and puts a new spring in your step, not to mention enabling you to eat corn on the cob (without having yours scraped off into a bowl). Oh, and if you have put off even seeing a dentist or are "phobic" about doing so, I promise: no criticism, no disapproval and no pain. You'll even find an amazing Tropical Island Resort Experience at our practice that is beautiful and relaxing.

My staff is the most respectful and courteous group you've ever met—in an increasingly disrespectful, discourteous world. I am the gentlest dentist on earth © in my humble opinion, and the opinion of over 5,000 people I've helped replace a "bad mouth" with a great one.
